

Broadband over Power Lines will be detrimental to the future of amateur radio. Why should we allow this when there are so many other medias that give access to broadband already. Don't punish the one service that is always ready to lend a helping hand in any emergency with interference that will inhibit the ability to effectively communicate. Don't jeopardize a wonderful hobby.